

All NAAC accredited institutions will submit an annual self-reviewed progress report to NAAC, through its IQAC. The report is to detail the tangible results achieved in key areas, specifically identified by the institutional IQAC at the beginning of the academic year. The AQAR will detail the results of the perspective plan worked out by the IQAC. (Note: The AQAR period would be the Academic Year. For example, July 1, 2012 to June 30, 2013)

- Teachers express their opinion that student-teachers will work with them as if they are one among them
- Most of them I am happy about the allotment of the schools.

(i) Awareness Programme: (Page No: 26)

REPORT

A Training Programme was organised by Youth For Seva on 'Menstrual hygiene awareness and safe and unsafe touch' for the students and volunteers on Saturday 18th November 2017 at 2 pm. at Dwaraka Nele, Behind Vasan Eye Care, S S Puram. Dr. Jyothi.B.Panth, Assistant Professor, SSCE and student-teachers of our institution attended this training programme as volunteers.

Kumari Bhargavi, Project Co-ordinator, Doctors for seva, Youth for Seva was the resource person. She initiated the programme by giving a questionnaire to be answered by the volunteers. Then it was analysed by the Resource person. Then she began her deliberation by interacting with the volunteers to share their knowledge w.r.t. menstrual cycle in females. She clarified the misconceptions and doubts of the volunteers regarding the issues related to menstrual cycle. She even used the technology(LCD) to show a video about it, which opened the eyes of all the volunteers. Then she stepped into the topic "safe and unsafe touch". She explained about this topic by narrating a few incidents that took place at Mandya and Shivamogga District schools and even showed a video how children are physically exploited by the people. The resource person gave instructions for the volunteers to reach the target group with affectionately and to give correct and needed information to them. Even the Helpline number 1098 was also introduced to the volunteers to communicate the same to the target group. After the presentation and interaction, a CD was given to the volunteers to be used during their execution.

Supreeth Kumar, Co-ordinator, Youth For Seva, Tumakuru expressed gratitude to all the volunteers for their participation.

For the follow-up of the training an WhatsApp group was created in the name of MH awareness-Tumkur, to upload the programmes organised by the volunteers and it was suitably responded by Kumari Bhargavi.
